

Where: State of Vermont Department of Public Service

Relevant Disciplines: Economics, Engineering, Business Administration

Date: March 21, 2008

UTILITIES ECONOMIC ANALYST II or III
Department of Public Service

Help Vermont plan for its' energy future in this exciting position in the Planning Division. You will conduct detailed investigations and perform engineering and economic assignments in support of the State's Twenty Year Electric Plan. You must have a Bachelor's degree in a related discipline, and two years professional experience working in the field of economic planning and analysis--preferably in a utility or an electric utility regulatory agency. This position is being recruited at two levels in a three-level job series. You must apply on-line for this position at www.vermontpersonnel.org . Reference job posting #24418 (Level II), and/or job posting #24411 (Level III). Montpelier – Permanent/Full-time. Recruitment Open Until filled For more information contact Riley Allen at 802-828-4053 or email riley.allen@state.vt.us.