

Advanced Workshop in Regulation and Competition 2003-2004
Who Says Network Industries are Boring: Blackouts, Governance, Fraud & More

CENTER FOR RESearch IN REGULATED
INDUSTRIES

January 16th 2004

Security and Reliability

at Rutgers University
Management Education Center
Room 104

- 10:00-10:30 Sign In, Coffee and Tea available
- 10:30-10:40 Welcome and Introduction – Michael A. Crew
- 10:40-12:00 “Reliability Revisited after August 14” by Michael Crew,
Paul Kleindorfer and Menahem Spiegel
- 12:00-12:20 Colin Loxley, PSE&G, “Options for the Grid after August 14”
- 12:20-12:40 Julie Kelly, Research Associate, IDA, “Security Issues and Wireless”
- 12:40-12:50 Plenary Discussion
- 12:50-1:50 LUNCH
- 1:50-2:10 “Innovative Uses of Electricity Distribution Plant,”
John Kelly, Director of Economics and Research, APPA
- 2:10-2:50 “Balancing Competition in Public Utilities: Postal Service
Here and Abroad,” Marc Smith, Economist USPS
- 2:50-3:10 Plenary Discussion, Closing Remarks –Michael A. Crew