

Advanced Workshop in Regulation and Competition 2005-2006

*Role of Energy Policy, Regulatory and Pricing Innovations, and Corporate
Governance on High Energy Prices*

November 18, 2005

CENTER FOR
RESearch IN
REGULATED
INDUSTRIES

Implementing the Energy Act of 2005 and Industry Structure

at Rutgers University
Management Education Center
Room 105

- |             |   |
|-------------|---|
| 10:00-10:30 | Sign In, Coffee and Tea available   |
| 10:30-10:40 | Welcome and Introduction – Michael A. Crew  |
| 10:40-11:35 | “Implications of the EPA Act: An IOU Perspective” byEric Ackerman, Manager, Regulatory Policy, & Tim McClive,Chief Economist, Edison Electric Institute |
| 11:35-12:30 | “The New Energy Act and Public Power” by Joe Nipper, SeniorVice President – Government Relations, American Public PowerAssociation                      |
| 12:30-1:30  | LUNCH   |
| 1:30-2:25   | “The Energy Act and Incentives to Transmission Investment” byJanet Gail Besser, Vice President – State Regulatory Relations,National Grid USA,          |
| 2:25-3:10   | “Bundled vs. Unbundled Utilities” by Menahem Spiegel, AssociateProfessor of Economics, Rutgers University,  |
| 3:10-3:20   | Closing Remarks –Michael A. Crew  |